

- ARS Safety, Health and Environmental Inspection Checklist
- OSHA General References – Additional links to references that may be needed to address complex safety or health issues.
- OSHA Health Guidelines – Summaries of pertinent information about chemicals for workers and employers as well as for physicians, industrial hygienists, and other occupational safety and health professionals who may need such information to conduct effective occupational safety and health programs.
- OSHA Other Site Links – The Occupational Safety & Health Administration provides these information sources because OSHA believes they may be helpful and informative. OSHA is not affiliated with these organizations and is not responsible for the content of the information provided. Their appearance here should not be construed as an endorsement.
- OSHA Safety and Health Information Bulletins \(SHIBs\) – A tool OSHA uses to inform internal staff and the public of significant occupational safety and health issues concerning hazard recognition, evaluation, and control in the workplace and at emergency response sites.
- OSHA Safety and Health Topics – Assistance for complying with OSHA standards, enabling employers to ensure safer workplaces.
- OSHA Technical Manual – The manual is to assist OSHA Compliance Safety and Health Officers in hazard recognition and to provide guidance in accident prevention and provides insight for what inspectors look for during an inspection.